SYNOD CONFERENCE MAY BE HELD HERE

Summer Gathering Would Bring 200 People to St. Stephen's

The synod of the Episcopal Church of New York and New Jersey has for a number of years conducted two conferences during the summer months, one at Princeton and the other at Hobart. These conferences are for young men and young women of high school and college age. The attendance at each conference averages about 200 and the groups meet for ten days to study the problems of church and society, the church and the world, the church and education.

This year the synod has asked St. Stephen's if the Princeton conference might be transferred to this institution. Negotiations are now under way and it seems quite probable that the conference will be held here from June 30 to July 10. Distinguished speakers on the topics mentioned will be in charge of the classes. It is also quite probable that President Bell and Dr. Edwards will be on the teaching staff.

PRESIDENT BELL IS RE-ELECTED TREAS.

College Association Names Him Member of Executive Committee

At a meeting of the Association of American Colleges held in New York recently, at which the presidents of 260 American colleges were in attendance, President Bell was re-elected treasurer and a member of the executive committee of five which directs the policies of the association. Other members of the committee are Dean John Effinger, University of Michigan, chairman; President Lucia Friess, Milwaukee-Doner college; President Frank Aydelotte, Swarthmore; Dean Frank Chandler, University of Cincinnati.

This committee directs the activities of the commissions which are at present investigating the possible reformation of college curricula; the preparation of an authoritative volume on educational requirements of college buildings; the present condition of college athletics; the cost of college education; the enlistment and training of proper men for college faculties; the method of rating and individually looking after the undergraduates; the promotion of faculty scholarship in American colleges.

This association has 316 members and President Bell, as treasurer, handles a yearly budget of $15,000

FATE OF SPRING DANCE RESTS WITH STUDENTS; TO VOTE AT CONVOCATION

Acting unofficially and not desiring to secure the approval of college authorities until the consent of the student body has been obtained, the spring dance committee is prepared to submit to the students their plan for the 1926 college dance. This plan, which is outlined in this article, will be submitted to the students for approval, at a meeting of convocation to be held the first or second week in the second semester.

The committee, which is composed of representatives from the fraternities and the non-fraternity group and is headed by Gilbert King, has adopted one plan of procedure which it thinks the best and most feasible. After lengthy debates on the subject, it was decided that the following proposition will be put before the student body for approval. If it is favored, the united dance will be held; if it is not favored, the dance will be given by a fraternity as in former years.

It is felt that $1200 is needed to stage a socially successful dance at this college, the occasion to be the big event of the year. The committee proposes to ask convocation permission to assess each student $10 whether he attend the dance or not. This amount is to cover admission into dance, refreshments during intermission, and probably breakfast party. Efforts will be made to secure a good orchestra of about ten pieces and outside help will be sought in decorating the gymnasium.

More complete details of the plan will be given at the meeting of convocation. Students are asked to communicate with their fraternity representatives on the committee and to obtain from them information about the affair so that they will not attend the meeting and vote without having given the proposition a thorough study.

On the committee Griswold and Wilson represent S. A. E.; Tite and Simcox, K. G. X.; Faerber and Linsley, Eulexian; Babcock and Sypher, Non-Socs.

DR. GEORGE STEWART WILL LECTURE FEB. 8

On Monday, February 8, Dr. George Stewart will lecture on the politics of Central Europe and the possible danger points of the next great war. After graduating from Yale, where he was one of the most popular students of his time, Dr. Stewart went with the Y. M. C. A. At the end of the World War, and for the first few years thereafter he devoted his entire time to work in the Central European countries to study European politics. He is familiar with conditions in Turkey, Poland, Greece, Austria, Hungary, and the other countries of that section which so often supply the spark for setting off a great international conflagration. After his stay abroad Dr. Stewart returned to Yale and took his Ph. D. Later he was ordained to the Presbyterian ministry and is now assistant pastor of the Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church.

Hamilton Professor is reported to have called a man in his class "An intellectual Flea." Another reason why college boys forget to mention the faculty in their prayers.—Hamilton Life.

FRESHMEN WILL HOLD DANCE IN GYM. FEB. 12

The class of '29 has partially completed arrangements for the annual frolic frolic in Memorial Gymnasium. The mid-winter fate will occur Friday evening, February 12.

The committee, Raab, chairman; Demitz and Moller, have booked tentatively one of the outstanding entertaining orchestras of the Clef Club, of New York City. Besides being a first-class dance orchestra the members abound in talent for giving numerous novelty "stunts."

One of the outstanding features of the evening will be a special number by "Shufflin' Mose" Cox, '29.

Saturday afternoon, provided the Gymnasium can be obtained for the purpose, a tea dance will be given. Saturday evening will be enlivened by parties at the fraternity houses.

The probable list of patrons and patronesses is: President and Mrs. Bell, Dean and Mrs. Upton, Dr. and Mrs. Shero, Mrs. Kuyk, and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph F. Wilson.

Students who wish to attend the frolic may signify their intention by signing their names to the daily-growing roster on the bulletin board in Preston Hall.

MESSANGER BOARD WOULD PUBLISH AN ANNUAL IN JUNE

At Convocation Students will be Asked to Support Proposition

A NEW EXPERIMENT

At the next meeting of convocation the Messenger Board will submit to the student body a plan whereby the fourth edition of the literary publication will be made into a year-book. The plan is to have the book, which would appear in June, would contain individual cuts of the seniors, cuts of the classes, the athletic teams, the group picture of the student body, campus scenes, etc. In addition to the pictures short accounts of each class, the histories and activities, the functions of the various organizations and clubs would be printed. Altogether, the book would be of general interest to every one at St. Stephen's, and from 125 to 150 pages in size. The cost would not exceed two dollars per student.

It is the desire of the board that in the annual cuts of the fraternities be included. However, the cost of having the cuts made, a nominal one, would have to be defrayed by each group.

The innovation of the year-book is entirely new upon the hill and is in the nature of an experiment. St. Stephen's needs such a production and, if the matter is received favorably by the students, it is hoped that the faculty, the alumni and the friends of the college will support the project with popular subscription.

It is the desire of the Messenger staff that the students give the proposition careful consideration, so that in convocation helpful discussion may decide the issue.

CAMPUS NOTES

Three men expect to leave the college at the end of this semester. Wallace Page will resume his studies at the Brooklyn Polytechnical Institute, Paul Lee will transfer to Columbia, and Edwin Hague will retire for his health to Arizona.

Major H. S. Smith, '90, rector of St. John's Church, Barrytown, sails on January 31st for a tour in the Mediterranean. He expects to spend some time in the Holy Land and Egypt, and later in England for rest and recreation.

THE ART OF EXAMINATION

President Lowell of Harvard, in a brief article evaluates examinations in the January number of the Atlantic Monthly. He holds that they have three distinct objects, to measure the progress of pupils, to furnish a direct means of education, and to set a standard of achievement. His article indicates that college presidents are not unaware of undergraduate opposition to periodical tests.

Dr. Lowell writes that one of the difficulties has come from paying almost exclusive attention to the first of these objects—applying the yard stick to learning. And since there is a tendency to excuse the good scholar from tests, examinations in some American schools have become ordeals to be imposed only upon delinquents as a sort of indictment for crime. A failure to stimulate the superior student is the result of using examinations merely as a measure of the minimum of attainment. Other opposition has arisen in the general undergraduate opinion that examination marks represent the amassing of unimportant information in a course. Dr. Lowell concluded: "If examinations were perfect the results would command universal respect, and high grades would be a more general object of ambition."

The second object of examinations, in Dr. Lowell's opinion, is of more importance than the mere measure of progress. Examinations are a useful part of the educational process. They train the faculty of remembering by making it more readily responsive to a call. They train the student to apply principles to new conditions. Furthermore, the prospect of examinations should furnish steady incentive to continued application to duty.

The third object of examinations is the setting of a standard of achievement. In this respect Dr. Lowell places special emphasis on the value of general departmental examinations, such as have been instituted at Wesleyan.

Undoubtedly such steps as honor courses, unlimited cuts, public recognition of high scholarship, and attempts to improve the complex and difficult art of framing indicative examination questions are steps to alleviate the disdain in which high marks have been held.

A CORRECTION

A notice has just been received that the dinner of the Association of Alumni and Former Students will be held, not in the Hotel Astor, but in the El Patio Room of the Hotel McAlpin, Broadway at 34th St. The price is to be $3.50.

Communications should be addressed to Herman J. Smith, 175 9th Ave., N. Y. C. The other plans will remain as they were announced before. All are urged strongly to attend as it is a meeting of particular importance.

1445 NEW BOOKS ADDED TO LIBRARY

These Volumes Placed on Shelves
Since September

Very few of the persons on campus who use the library more or less regularly realize how many are the books that are contributed yearly by friends and alumni of the college. It has been customary during the last few years to increase annually the stock of literature in the library by over one thousand volumes. Last year, 1261 works were placed on the shelves for use. Of that number, 433 volumes were donated by various people interested in St. Stephen's. Father Parry, whose bookplate is so familiar to many of the readers in our midst, during the past four months of this semester, has given 107 books. Another liberal donor, the Rev. D. H. Clarkson, has given 42 books in the same length of time.

Considering the size of the college, one reads with surprise that 1445 books have been added to the shelves since last September. At the end of the last semester, there were 33,221 volumes in the library. So large have the additions to this number become that it has been found necessary to use the upper tiers of the Hoffman Memorial.

THE INTERCAMPUS

Trinity

Announcement has been made by the administration committee of Trinity College that the tuition for next year will be raised to three hundred dollars.

Williams

At Williams the slogan "Athletics for All" is reaping ample success, as shown in the recent action of the Williams Athletic Council in awarding athletic insignia for participation in fall sports to 143 men, or 20% of the college body.

Amherst

Because of the lack of efficient coaching, and the resultant poor showing of the 1925 hockey team, the students of Amherst College have voted to drop this winter sport for the season of 1926. In past years hockey teams at Amherst have been either coached by interested members of the faculty, or by proficient undergraduates. Last year only two games on the schedule resulted in victories. This action applies only to the present season, as it is expected that arrangements for better coaching will be made before next year.

Dartmouth

Myles Lane, the far-famed half-back of the championship Dartmouth team, is making a great name for himself on the ice as a member of the Green hockey team. He has proved to be the most capable stick handler in the outfit.

Yale

In a recent editorial in the Yale News, a well known football official claims that a good deal of the over-emphasis of college football is caused by the alumni of the opposing teams betting on the outcome of the game, thereby causing a demand for victory. All spirit of support of one's team because of loyalty and love of the college is lost, being supplanted by a personal and selfish desire for victory so that the winner may reap the harvest of his friend's loss.

Harvard

Two new Professorships have been established at Harvard College in memory of the late Francis L. Higginson of the Class of 1863. The two new chairs are in the Department of English Literature and History.

WHAT THE—

Women students at the Adventist College of Walla Walla, Washington, are required to wear their dresses within twelve inches of the floor.

Why Not?

Bella is a changed woman. She is taking a "speak-easy" French course advertised in the Sunday paper. In order to further her already uncanny mastery of the language she refuses to speak anything but her grandmother-tongue; her grandmother's name was French. She says she likes the music of the French vowels. Consequently our office-hours are naught but a long-sustained symphony.

"Bonjoor, Monseer," says the lovely girl.

"Good morning, Bella. Do sit down," says we.

"Aveck bokoop der playzeer, Mez nonn?"

"Splendid, Bella," we remark, "how you do make us swell with pride."

"Listen to this," says Bella modestly, "voysee ler liver."

"Oh, Bella! You make us feel ver humble."

"Trez ben," she laughed, "Allors, so-yez tranquil. Je sweez uhn bonn fill."

Perhaps there is nothing Bella—nothing in this great cosmos of ours—that could please us more than the knowledge that you are good. Stay that way, please. Cigarettes and gin fizzes may appear attractive, but all of that sort of thing is nothing but sham. Everyone loves a man that is good, strong, and clean.

"Ah, wee vooze esst correct. Jer vooze aim, jer vooze adore, vooly-vous."

"No, Bella," we whisper, "you mustn't ask favors of us. We all—each of us—have or has, his or their work to do in the world, and you have too, Bella. Apply yourself. Elbow-grease counts much more than good-looks. You must know that."

"Per-tetter vooze esst correct, enn-core. Ask me a question an uh'll tell it to you in the tongue of my choice."

"Have you a note-book? Come clean now, Bella. Don't beat about the bush. Honor bright, have you or haven't you a notebook?"

"Wee monseer jay uhn car-yay."

"Just listen to that. She leaves nothing to be desired. Bella, you're all the French grammars say you are."

Lewis Hammond.

RESUME HOCKEY

Completely changing its attitude of one week ago, when hockey as an intercollegiate sport for 1926 was abolished at Amherst because of inadequate coaching, the Student Association restored the sport last Friday on the alleged basis of new evidence and hasty action preceding its previous motion. Although Captain Cameron still asserts that the poor coaching system renders impossible an equal basis for competition with other colleges, it is probable that the Williams-Amherst games scheduled for February 4 and 20 will be played.

VOTE AS YOU DRINK DRINK AS YOU VOTE

New Haven, Jan. 26.—That the present prohibition situation would be relieved considerably "if the citizens of the United States would only vote as they drink and drink as they vote" is the opinion expressed by United States Attorney Emory R. Buckner of New York, in an interview granted to the Yale Daily News.

"The great burden today," Mr. Buckner said, "is that people may vote for prohibition or be in favor of it because they think it will be of benefit to others, but they do not aid in its enforcement themselves. Complacency enforcing the prohibition law poisons the whole state and federal service. The complacency leads to corruption, corruption breeds crime; and crime sooner or later breeds to conspiracies.

"If the citizens of this country do not like prohibition they should not privately criticize or seek to hamstring law enforcement. They should, like true Americans, come out in the open and fight for the repeal of the 18th amendment or its modification. Criticism and blackmail with economic or political threats of those charged with the sworn duty of enforcing prohibition, is one of the reasons for the present difficulty of making this law a success."

Mr. Bruckner mentioned four remedies—the creation of federal courts for the trial of petty offences and misdemeanors without indictment or a jury being necessary; federal police courts and would try minor offences with the power to sentence to jail for one year; make it impossible for a convicted man to be released on bail without appealing to a higher court unless there is a substantial doubt as to the propriety of his conviction and therefore a reasonable chance that he will secure a reversal of his case; passage of a law by congress creating official grand jury stenographers.

WITH THE MUMMERS

Owing somewhat to the absence of the president from campus during his recent illness, and somewhat to the coincidental sickness of Paul Titus, president of the Mummies, the plays which were scheduled for production during the first semester have been postponed until early in the second semester. The probable date, according to Titus, will be sometime during the latter part of February. The exact date has not yet been decided.

The production of these plays during the second semester will not prevent the presentation by the Mummies of its regular second semester bill. The plays and the casts for the later theatricals will no doubt be chosen directly after the showing of the pieces which have been so unfortunately postponed.

FOOD FOR THOUGHT

An action which was taken by the University of Minnesota should prove interesting to other colleges. It was decided by the student body and faculty to award letters to graduates who had played on athletic teams in the university before the days when the award of letters was the usual means of reward for service to the college. This happened, not recently, but, if I have been informed correctly some years ago and it is surprising that so few other colleges have done the same. It would provide a most excellent opportunity for an Alumni Reunion, or, at least, would do much to enliven the reunion at which the awards were made. Incidentally, it would do much to foster the proper relationships between the undergraduate and alumni bodies, and would certainly be appreciated by the enthusiastic graduates who have always done so much to support the college.

HARD FOUGHT GAME LOST TO SCARLET

Rally in Last Few Minutes Puts St. Lawrence Ahead

St. Stephen's Loses to St. Lawrence

St. Stephen's lost a spectacular and hard fought game to the St. Lawrence quintet at Canton, N. Y., January 14, 38 to 23. To quote The Watertown Standard, "The contest was a rare exhibition of intercollegiate basketball between two of the fastest teams in the East and it was not until the last minutes of play that St. Lawrence forged ahead of their opponents sufficiently to be certain of the outcome." The struggle was fast and close throughout and at the end of the first half St. Lawrence was in the lead by a margin of two field baskets, the score being St. Lawrence 17, St. Stephen's 13.

The second half found both teams fighting their hardest and the Crimson quintet made two field baskets which brought the score to a tie. This close score continued for some minutes until St. Lawrence broke away on a rally that netted the additional points, making the final score 38 to 23 in favor of St. Lawrence.

Stolp and Finch, forwards for the Crimson, played a spectacular passing game while Milliman, at center, starred and was high scorer for St. Stephen's. Burkman, left forward for the Canton quintet, played a good game scoring 22 of his team's 38 points.

The score at half time—St. Lawrence 17; St. Stephen's 14.

The junior varsity kept up their hard, clean fighting in their second game of the season when they defeated the team of Beacon High School by a score of 18-15. The game was hard and fast and the junior varsity displayed admirably its good training. Goutell led in the scoring with four field goals. With but a few minutes to play, the Beacon team made a sudden rally but were unable to get in the lead, for the J-V's by quick passing and headwork, were able to check the unexpected onrush. Score at half time 7-8.

The second half started off with a rush and was hard fought. At the end of the period the score stood 29 to 29 and a five-minute overtime period was played. In this period Finch and Weeks each scored a field basket to bring their team through for the victory.

For St. Stephen's, Milliman, Weeks and Finch played a good game, while Stewart and Kempf were high scorers for the Engineers.

R. I. STATE, TRINITY AND WESLEYAN NEXT

Varsity Has Three Hard Games First Week of Second Semester

The varsity will make its next trip on February 4, 5 and 6 when three strong Rhode Island and Connecticut teams will be met. On February 4, the Crimson five will stack themselves against the Rhode Island State aggregation at Kingston, R. I. Little is known about the strength of the Rhode Islanders. On February 5, the Wesleyan team will be met at Middletown, Conn., and on February 6, the Trinity quintet furnish opposition at Hartford. Wesleyan is known to have a good team and has scored a 42-10 victory over Trinity as well as a 42-18 victory over Williams.

Inasmuch as St. Stephen's already has met Williams, the following excerpt from the Williams Record should be of interest:

Falling down completely before the aggressive and well-timed attack of the Wesleyan quintet, the Williams basketball team, somewhat handicapped by playing on a larger court in the first game away from Williams-town this season, was severely trounced by a 41-18 score last Friday evening, (January 15) at Middletown in the initial contest of the Little Three series. An improved team showed itself to better advantage the following evening in the Hartford High School Gymnasium where, by more accurate passing, steadier teamwork and a speedier offence, it defeated Trinity 28-22 in a see-saw struggle of which the score does not truly indicate the Purple's superiority.

Tennis fans at St. Stephen's will be relieved to know that the rumor of abandoning tennis as an official sport has not been confirmed by any authentic report. Swarthmore and Colgate are the most formidable opponents which have been added to the new schedule.

VARSIITY LOSES TO CLARKSON 29-28

On Thursday night St. Stephen's lost the return game with Clarkson, on the home court, by one point. The game was poorly played in the first half but was more lively in the second half. The Clarkson quintet, playing a good game, kept the lead throughout, though always threatened by St. Stephen's. The Crimson's team-play and accuracy in passing seemed a "bit off" the good form of the past few games.

In the first few minutes of play Clarkson scored five points but Milliman, playing well for St. Stephen's, made two field goals to start the scoring for his team. Clarkson, however, kept the lead and at half time the score stood, Clarkson 15, St. Stephen's 6.

The second half started off with a rush and was "fast, furious, and hard fought" until the final whistle blew. With four minutes left to play the score stood, Clarkson 28, St. Stephen's 23, and in a desperate rally the Crimson quintet gained two field and one foul goals making them one point behind. With but five seconds left to play and but one field goal needed for a victory the home team made an unsuccessful attempt to score and the final whistle put an end to the game.

For St. Stephen's Milliman was high scorer with four field goals to his credit, while Harding and Weeks came next with two apiece. For Clarkson, Bucher, Stewart and Jenkins did most of the scoring.

The line-up:

St. Stephen's	Clarkson
Finch	R.F. Stewart
Stolp	L.F. Kampf
Milliman	C. Jenkins
Wilson	R.G. Haskell
Harding	L.G. O'Hare

Substitution—For St. Stephen's: Weeks, Urquhart. For Clarkson: Rutherford.

Score at half time—Clarkson 15, St. Stephen's 8.

Final Score—Clarkson 29, St. Stephen's 28.

Time of periods—20 minutes.

Referee—Graham.

Timer—Kunkel.

ROCHESTER TO HAVE TOM DAVIES AS COACH

Tom Davies, former University of Pittsburgh star and coach of Allegheny College, Meadville, Pa., for the last two seasons, will coach the University of Rochester football team for the next three seasons.

The contract, when signed, will be for three years, according to the wishes of both Davies and the University authorities. An assistant coach who will have charge of line work will be selected by the grid mentor. Davies is expected to direct his attention to the perfection of the backfield, in which department he starred as a half-back while at Pittsburgh.

Davies will come to the University about March 1 for spring football practice. This will make his fifth season as a football coach, his previous coaching being conducted at Penn in 1922, Geneva College, the next year and for two years he was head coach at Allegheny.

The playing record of the new football coach shows four years of creditable football with the University of Pittsburgh. He was picked for an All-American half-back position three times by the late Walter Camp, the first time being in his freshman year. Davies possesses the reputation of being a good offensive coach, and is said to be able to teach his system effectively.

WHY YOU NEED THIS GUIDE

"It is safe to say that failure to guide and direct study is the weak point in the whole educational machine. Prof. G. M. Whipple, U of Michigan.

"The successful men in college do not seem to be very happy.
Most of them, especially the athletes are overworked." Prof. H. S.
Canby, Yale.

"Misdirected labor, though honest and well intentioned may lead to naught. Among the most important things for the student to learn is how to study. Without knowledge of this his labor may be largely in vain." Prof. G. F. Swain, M. I. T.

"To students who have never learnt 'How to Study,' work is very often a chastisement, a flagellation, and an insuperable obstacle to contentment." Prof. A. Inglis, Harvard.

"HOW TO STUDY" will show you how to avoid all misdirected effort.
